MEETINGS FIRST AND THIRD TUESDAYS, 8 P. M.

June 20, 1944

A meeting of the Mayor and Common Council was called to order by Mayor Van Moreland in the Seat Pleasant Fire Department at 8:07 p.m. with all members of the Council present except Councilman John Marquette. The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved as read.

On the motion of Councilman Roberts seconded by Wells and carried the town voted to pay Theodore Swann $12.50 as half the cost of the Health Department license to haul grass and garbage. On the motion of Councilman Wells seconded by Councilman Roberts the town agreed to pay Paul Beyer $50 per month as town bailiff beginning June 6, 1944. A committee consisting of Councilman Roberts, Wells and Fominaya was appointed to draft regulations to control the police department.

William F. Cleary was authorized to have printed 1,000 copies of the town building regulations.

On the motion of Councilman Cleary seconded by Roberts and carried treasurer Crown was authorized to make the proper negotiations to secure the sale of $7,000 street bonds through the Seat Pleasant Bank. He was further granted authorization to complete the negotiations without further action of the council.

Councilman Fominaya was instructed to draft a set of fire regulations for the town.

The council adjourned at 10:29 p.m.
